So you build, say, 100 very elegant new missiles, using all the latest gadgets. Everything "state of the art," as they say. Don't ask me why they say "state of the art." You'd think a country that spends $25 billion on missiles and wouldn't give Rembrandt $2.75 for a can of paint thinner would refer to missiles as "the art of the state," but we are speaking now about Washington people, and Washington people tend to talk backwards. That would please many housing economists and probably most of the sellers as well. With institutional mortgage rates so high, even after recent declines, many buyers have been unable to qualify for traditional loans of 75 percent of the purchase price. So to make the sale possible, the sellers themselves have been granting loans to the buyers - in effect, deferring the withdrawal of all or part of their equity in the house. Arrested five years ago by the Soviet regime, he was sentenced to a 13-year prison term on charges that he worked for the Central Intelligence Agency - an allegation denied by President Jimmy Carter. Before his arrest, he was an active member of the Helsinki Watch Committee and he agitated for the right of Jews to emigrate to Israel. Thus, he is being oppressed not only as a man but also as a representative of the human spirit - and particularly of the Jewish quest to be identified with the people and land of Israel.
